Re: Unauthorized Use of Warrick Dunn's Name and Picture

Dear Mr. Morin:

Please be advised that CAA Sports represents Warrick Dunn. It has come to our attention that you are featuring Mr. Dunn's name and picture on your "talk-sports" website found at the link http://www.talk-sports.net/nfl/girlfriend.aspx/Warrick\_Dunn. Your website is clearly a commercial venture which contains revenue-generating advertisements and links.

You have not been granted any right whatsoever to use the name and/or picture of Mr. Dunn. The unauthorized misappropriation of an individual's name and likeness for a commercial purpose is an infringement of his personal rights, privacy rights and common law trademark rights. Such infringement subjects you, your employees and principals, and all individuals/entities associated with this activity to serious liability.

Accordingly, you are hereby directed to cease and desist immediately all uses of Mr. Dunn's name and picture in connection with any commercial enterprise including, without limitation, the aforementioned website.

We trust that you can appreciate the serious nature of this situation and will therefore act accordingly. We strongly encourage your cooperation in rectifying this situation before it escalates.

This is your final opportunity to cooperate with us in an effort to bring the dispute to an amicable resolution without the assistance of third parties.

Should you fail to comply immediately with the terms of this letter, Mr. Dunn will be forced to pursue against you all available remedies.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

Terence B. Prince
